

Quote from Jack Dunne

October 16, 2004 | Quote from Jack Dunne, Boxing Writer for MAXBOXING.COM:

"Anani is the one who sunk the first attempt to put together Martin – Rjiker when she beat Martin in her own backyard. Martin avoided Anani like the plague for the rest of her career and quite frankly, Lucia Rjiker not only avoided Anani for her entire career, she admitted that she wouldn't face Sumya because Sumya was too big a risk for any reward she would receive and admitted it on ESPN.

Sumya Anani beat Martin in what was only her 11th professional contest. Sumya was GREEN when she beat Christy, she became far more polished as time went by and this is why Christy avoided her like the plague.

Anani went on to become the most decorated woman boxer of her era. Every damn thing a person could think of. Undisputed champion in two weight divisions at the same time and the #1 female fighter in the world P4P.

Actually, Sumya has more than just fans, she has pundits, including Pedro Fernandez whom recently called Sumya "The Uncrowned Queen of Women's Boxing."