SUMYA "THE ISLAND GIRL" ANANI

Our co-main event will feature the only woman to ever beat Christy Martin – Sumya “The Island Girl” Anani. The 5’6” junior welterweight, is 15-0 with seven knockouts and was named the Women Boxing Archive Network (WBAN) “1999 Fighter of the Year.”

This exciting Minnesota-born Jamaican won a thrilling 10-round decision over world-renown Christy Martin in December of 1998 and was catapulted into the national spotlight.

On March 12, 1999, Anani recorded another impressive victory by defeating former U.S. amateur champion Denise Moraetes in a clear 8-round unanimous decision. Anani is a professional masseuse and yoga instructor who began boxing professionally as a form of exercise in the summer of 1996.
